

LA TUA PASTA

A tailor-made security system had to be designed, installed and up and running without delay.

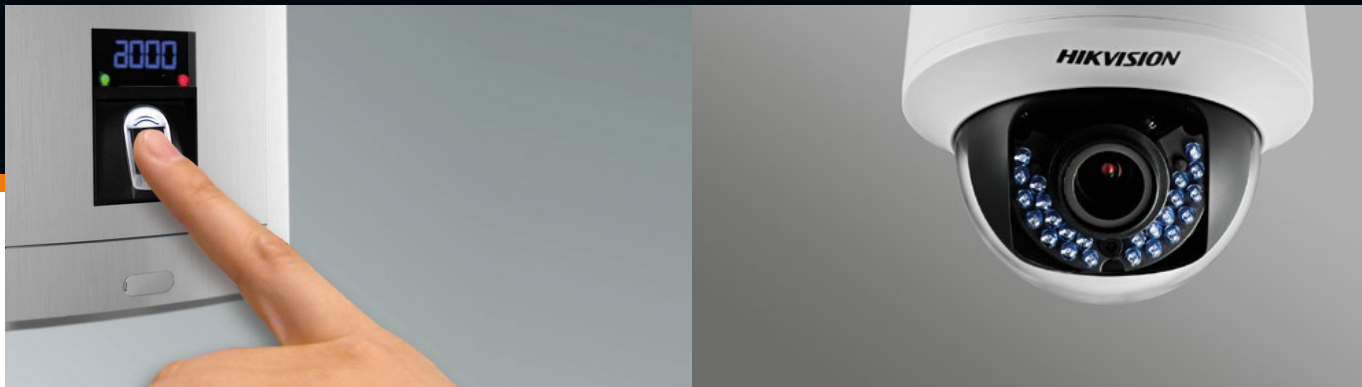

LA TUA PASTA ARE MAKERS OF THE FINEST ARTISAN FRESH PASTA. WHEN THEIR BUSINESS GREW AND THEY MOVED INTO LARGER PREMISES, THEY NEEDED A BESPOKE SECURITY SYSTEM – FAST.

SECURITEC GIVES LA TUA PASTA THE FAST RESPONSE THEY NEED TO PROTECT THEIR PEOPLE, PRODUCE AND EQUIPMENT.

Securitec Systems implemented a complete bespoke security system in a breathtaking three weeks to safeguard the premises of high class pasta production company La Tua Pasta. With a network of high definition cameras and advanced access control, the company can rest assured that only its highly skilled cooks will be able to get their hands on the ingredients.

The Task

La Tua Pasta are makers of the finest artisan fresh pasta, supplying some of the most prestigious hotels, restaurants, caterers and wholesalers in the UK and abroad. The North London-based business has grown steadily since opening in 2006, eventually reaching a point where larger premises were needed to house the array of fresh fillings, raw ingredients and specialist equipment, as well as the accompanying customer service department and delivery station.

When suitable premises were found, a tailor-made security system had to be designed, installed and up and running without delay.

After an in-depth analysis of all aspects of the project, it was clear that bespoke cutting-edge technology would be required.

The Solution

Having previously implemented a series of successful large-scale security installations at food specialists in and around London, Securitec Systems were selected to deliver the solution for La Tua Pasta.

After an in-depth analysis of all aspects of the project, it was clear that bespoke cutting-edge technology would be required.

Securitec commissioned and installed:

- 44 full high-definition digital IP Hikvision cameras
- Fermax fingerprint access system with integrate software and control
- Texecom alarm system with 30 detection devices and offsite 24 hour monitoring through Dualcom.

As well as an effective solution, La Tua Pasta needed a fast solution, and Securitec Systems turned around the complete installation in just three weeks.

The Outcome

La Tua Pasta are extremely happy with the outcome and the quality of the work carried out by Securitec.

Their sizeable new premises are ideal for the business's future growth plans – and the comprehensive security system installed by Securitec provides the assurance they need to produce and despatch their delicious pasta without fear of intruders or any other potentially damaging disruption.
